

2006 RSA RESEARCH GRANT WINNERS

RSA/Istituto Nazionale di Studi sul Rinascimento
David E. Baum, Union College
Fascism and the Italian Renaissance

Samuel H. Kress Foundation Fellowship
Katherine McIver, University of Alabama, Birmingham
Women, Material Culture, and Precious Material Goods

Renaissance Society of America, Research Grants
Senior Scholar
M. Thomas Hester, North Carolina State University
An Edition of the Prose Letters of John Donne

John Easton Law, University of Wales, Swansea
Records Relating to the Varano Rulers of Camerino Held in the Ducato di Urbino Archives in the Archivio di Stato, Florence

Mary Beth Winn, State University of New York, Albany
From Illustrated Borders to Devotional Pamphlets: Guillaume Godard and His Books of Hours (1510–1530)

Non-Doctoral

Katherine Wheeler Borum, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
The Tangible Past: Renaissance Architectural Casts in Victorian Britain

Alessia Frassani, The Graduate Center, The City University of New York
The Convento in the Indigenous Mixtec Town of Yanhuítlan in Oaxaca, Southwestern Mexico

Jill M. Pederson, The Johns Hopkins University
Leonardo's Circle: Studies in Painting and Court Culture in Renaissance Milan, 1480–1499

Younger Scholar

Christopher Carlsmith, University of Massachusetts Lowell
To Live and to Study: Student Colleges in Early Modern Padua

Amber A. McAlister, University of Miami
Franciscans and Their Patrons: The Late Fourteenth Century Murals by Niccolò di Pietro Gerini in the Migliorati Chapel, San Francesco, Prato (Italy)

Nadine Pederson, The University of Texas, Dallas
Documents Relating to the Early Office of Master of the Revels in France

Blade de Maria, Santa Clara University
Becoming Venetian: Immigrants and the Arts in Early Modern Venice